PROFILE

AI is at the heart of my work in two ways: I build it into the products I design, and I work with it every day. Behind that, more than ten years on the web, from front-end integration to CTO.

I build AI in. Inside the product: documents read, data extracted and checked, answers that cite their sources, agents that act within set bounds.

I work with AI. Every day: dozens of agents I orchestrate, tested and measured, to ship at the pace of a ten-person team. Currently CTO of MARKO, an AI-native B2B SaaS for real estate.

METHOD · ONE DEVELOPER, THE STRENGTH OF A TEAM

Where it used to take a team of ten developers and several years, I ship alone, surrounded by agents I orchestrate. AI doesn't replace the craft: it multiplies the reach of whoever knows how to direct it. Here is how I work.

Dozens of terminals at once.

One person, a whole team.

Custom skills and plugins.

Test everything, measure everything.

A fleet of agents on a single product.

Speed without losing control.

THE PROOF: MARKO

12,046 commits in eight months	2.1M lines of code	95% of commits: me and my agents
